AAI Information Table Templates for Researchers

Are you including therapy animals in your research project? To reflect that you are incorporating the best possible standards of the intervention into your work, there are many key details about both the therapy animals and their handlers that you'll want to make your readers aware of. Consider incorporating tables like these to provide this information in a clear and concise format.

Figure 1: Therapy Animal Information Table

Therapy Animal ID #	Species	Breed	Age	Description (researcher to include pertinent information)	Registration Status	Training Background	Hours of Service
1	Canine	Labrador	2	Large, neutered, calm	Pet Partners	CGC, positive reinforcement	205
2	Canine	Standard Poodle	7	Medium, spayed, playful	TDI	CGC, agility, positive reinforcement	65

Figure 2: Therapy Animal Handler Information Table

Handler ID #	Years Working with Therapy Animal	Pertinent Background Information	Demographic Information (as applicable)
1	5	Professional counselor, crisis response trained	To be provided depending on study's subject
2	2	Retired teacher	Male